

Ranger Activity Day & Sleepover

for all 14-18s in Middlesex East

Join us on April 27-28 for an activity day, sleepover or both...

Saturday daytime activities include:

- Learn camping skills: Fire lighting, outdoor cooking, tent pitching & repair, shelter building and more
- Work towards the Skills Builder badge Camp Stage 5
- [To be awarded Camp Stage 5 you should have slept outside for three nights with Guiding when over 14. If you have already done this you should provide evidence. You can sleep outside on this weekend for one night. If you have not done two previous nights we will award your badge when you have completed them.]

Saturday evening & overnight activities include:

- Complete Unit Meeting Activities (UMA) that will count towards your Ranger Gold Award
- Forget about exams with chill out crafts & activities
- Campfire with S'mores
- Sleep in a tent or a shelter you have constructed (or indoors!)
- Enjoy the same relaxed environment as ME Time
- No wake up time, breakfast in bed and make your own eggy bread

As always there will be a chance to discover more about all the amazing opportunities that Girlguiding has to offer for members aged 14-18 including travelling abroad, DofE, Queen's Guide Award, Peer Education, Young Leader Qualification, Leadership Qualification... and many more!
